MYSORE DISTRICT.

VISIT OF HIS EXCELLENCY THE VICEROY, 1927.

MEMO OF POLICE ARRANGEMENTS re PARKING OF CARRIAGES.

Public Arrival—29th July 1927.

MYSORE CITY RAILWAY STATION.

Invitees to the Railway Station are requested to drive up to the gate at the Southern End of the Railway Platform, near the Nanjangud Level Crossing, alight there and enter the Platform by that gate. The Police Officer on duty will give a numbered ticket each to the Driver and the owner to facilitate calling of vehicle for the return journey. The Cars and Carriages will, after the Invitees alight, pass the Level Crossing and will be parked in Princess Cheluvajammani Road opposite the Mansion according to the number.

The Invitees are requested to leave the Station Platform by the same gate. Cars and Carriages will be called up to the place by the Police Officers on duty on being furnished with the number given on arrival. No Car or Carriage will be called up until the entire Procession has left the Chamarajendra Technical Institute Circle and until the Baggage Lorries have been taken into the Platform.

The Procession route is closed for vehicular traffic from 7 A.M., and for all traffic including Pedestrians from 7-30 A.M. But the carriages of Invitees who hold Carriage Passes issued by the President of the Mysore City Municipal Council will be allowed into the Railway Station Circle up to 7-30 A.M.

Invitees are requested to instruct their Coachmen or Chaffeurs to obey strictly all instructions given by the Police on duty.

Public Arrival—29th July 1927.

MUNICIPAL PAVILION.

Invitees to the Municipal Pavilion are requested to drive up to the Rangacharlu Memorial Hall through the North Gate or to the Memorial Fountain. Cars and Carriages of Invitees coming to Rangacharlu Memorial Hall, will be parked in the open ground to the North of the Building. Cars and Carriages coming to the Memorial Fountain will, after the Invitees alight, turn left and enter the road between the Lansdowne Bazaar and the railing and be parked there in the order of arrival.

Invitees are requested to instruct their Coachmen or Chaffeurs to obey strictly all instructions given by the Police on duty.

Convocation.

POLICE ARRANGEMENTS.

On the 29th July 1927.

The road in front of Jagan Mohan Palace will be closed to all vehicular traffic from 2-30 P.M., on the 29th July 1927.

All Invitees are therefore requested to drive up to the Northern or Southern Gates of the Jagan Mohan Palace, and alight there and enter the grounds. The carriages will be parked in the Lakshmi Vilas and Krishna Vilas Roads in the order of their arrival. The Police Officer on duty will give numbers in duplicate, one to the Chaffeur or Coachman and the other to the owner, to facilitate calling for the carriages when the Invitees depart. The Invitees are requested to instruct their Drivers to obey strictly the orders of the Police Officers in charge of parking.

Official Memorandum No. V. V. A. 4183—26-27, dated Mysore, 24th July 1927.

To view the Viceregal Procession at Mysore, on the 29th July 1227, the public will be allowed on the foot-path on either side of the route up to the line where Policemen stand, except in such sections of the road as have been reserved by the Municipal Council for school children and for the Municipal Pandal.

The foot-paths on either side of Albert Victor Road from the Curzon Park Gate, up to the galleries and again from the Municipal Pandal, up to Statue Square are reserved exclusively for women and children. No men will be allowed in this section.

Memo No. V. V. A. 4183—26-27, dated Mysore, 24th July 1927.

In connection with the Visit of His Excellency the Viceroy to Seringapatam, on the 30th July 1927, the Wellesley Bridge and the Paschimavahini Bridge, will be closed for vehicular traffic from 10-30 A.M., until His Excellency has left Seringapatam island.

But all traffic held up at the two bridges will be allowed to pass at about 1-15 P.M., i.e., immediately after His Excellency has reached Scott's Bungalow.

Traffic proceeding to Mysore will, however, be diverted via Palhalli and Belagola, as the road from Paschimavahini to Mysore, will remain closed till His Excellency has reached Government House.
